Frederick County Department of Aging Day Trips: February-May 2013

Ford's Theatre

We'll visit the theatre, the museum, the Center for Education and Leadership, and the house where Lincoln died. The museum tells the story of Abraham Lincoln's presidency, from his arrival in Washington in 1861 to the legacy he left. The Center for Education and Leadership houses two floors of permanent exhibits addressing the immediate aftermath of the assassination and the evolution of the Lincoln legacy. Since acquiring the house in 1933, the National Park Service has maintained it as a historic house museum, recreating the scene at the time of Lincoln's death.

Date: Friday, February 8

Registration closes Friday, Feb. 1

Time: 9:00 a.m.-approximately 3:30 p.m.

National Building Museum

The building museum is America's leading cultural institution devoted to the history and impact of the built environment. The House & Home exhibition takes you on a tour of houses both familiar and surprising, through past and present, challenging our ideas about what it means to live at home in America. In The Green Schools exhibition you will have the chance to walk through a classroom and see green features in action. We'll also have a docent lead tour where we'll learn about the Inaugural Balls that have taken place in the building.
